

The Democrat.

FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1905

Adopted by the Democratic Executive Committee as the organ of the party in Lawrence County.

G. T. CRAWFORD, } EDITORS.
L. B. WHITE, }

The politicians who called on Bob Taylor to "come back to Tennessee and save the party" a few years ago when defeat was almost certain, promised him the United States Senatorship, his life's ambition, if he would come to the party's rescue. He came and the party was victorious. He left the lecture platform at $20,000 per year to do this.

When Senator Bate died the politicians had prepared a grave deep and wide and after applying a heavy dose of "Snap Caucus injection" to Taylor and McMillin were preparing to bury the political fortunes of Bob Taylor in the same grave with that of Benton McMillin, both to be buried unadorned and without public ceremony or demonstration—Even Senator Carmack had gone back to Washington and was not going to attend the funeral.

The funeral was planned but owing to the unruly qualities of Bob's Lion the grave still stands open. Those who planned the funeral are disappointed and some of them are mad, others indignant, they are mad at Benton, they are mad at Bob, because Benton and Bob refuse to be buried in the same grave. Bob does not want to be buried with Benton and Benton refuses to be buried with Bob, so Carmack's friends declare that Benton and Bob are trying to put him in the hole, and they are mad at Benton about that. Well we believe that the politicians when they give the people a primary may wear ciepe for one, if not some of their idols, and they may scatter flowers over that grave they prepared in remembrance of their own Neddy, while the people rejoice over the fulfillment of their solemn and morally binding promise, made to the great apostle of sunshine.

Would it not be an hilariously inspiring picture to see the bravery of Senator Carmack represented on canvas? Especially these three scenes:

First, Carmack passing President Roosevelt on the streets of Washington, without speaking to him. Second, His bravery at the St. Louis Convention where he killed the Great Bryan and completely routed his forces. Third, When he bravely and deliberately sat down and wrote out that Memphis interview and had it printed, and then had it reprinted all over Tennessee for the people to read.

Thou painter here is a subject for thy genius. The people are breathless to see thy production but we caution thee that all of thy efforts must be vain to produce a fair picture of such a sublime subject.

The present County Court of Lawrence according to State Superintendent Mynders deserves high approbation for its liberal support of the public schools. It is said by prominent authorities that Lawrence County is progressing more rapidly than any County in Tennessee. We believe this, but no wonder when we have a County Court that can be truthfully praised for most liberal encouragement to public education. This compliment from the State Superintendent was provoked by the addition of 5 cents to the school tax in spite of the fact that we are building a new Court house.

He assured us in his address that we should be kindly remembered when the $50,000 of surplus for weak schools should be distributed, it being the policy of the State to help those who help themselves.

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Freeman Bros.

The Bonny Land O' Dixie

The Confederate reunion which will be held at Wayland Springs August 10 should be one of the best ever held in the county.

Every soldier in the county who can possibly do so should be present and those who are not soldiers should do all in their power to make it a happy reunion.

In this county, we are glad to say that the reunions have never yet been made secondary to commercial interests as is the case with many patriotic celebrations and we hope that such will be the case at all times. If there is one thing which should appeal to the patriotism of the South above all others it is these reunions. The baptism of fire which visited us in the 60's certainly demonstrated what our Southern people were and it is but fitting that we honor the spirit of the men and women who were such important actors in the great drama. To the old soldier, we say, All hail. The marble stone erected in your memory but meanly portrays how we respect and love you. Man can erect no fitting monument for you. May you live to see many more happy reunions.

Good for Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done me a great deal of good," says C. Towns, of Rat Portage, Ontario, Canada. "Being a mild phisic the after effects are not unpleasant, and I can recommend them to all who suffer from stomach disorders." For sale by Freeman Bros.
